

CHINESE LANGUAGE & CULTURE WEEK FOR COLLEGE STUDENTS

May 18 - 23, 2026

FORMAT

At Sēn Lín Hú 森林湖, you will experience language learning through a variety of immersive experiences and activities combined with classroom-type instruction.

WHO CAN ENROLL?

Current undergraduate students in any major. There are no prerequisites, and all Chinese levels welcome.

CREDITS

Cost includes one (1) college/university credit from Concordia College

SESSION COST

$1,900 per person (all meals, housing, and activities included)

Spend a week immersed in Mandarin Chinese at Concordia Language Villages on scenic Turtle River Lake in Bemidji, Minnesota, and earn one college-level credit through Concordia College.

- Build confidence and fluency through group activities such as music, arts, and sports.
- Enjoy classic camp experiences like campfires, songs, and hiking beautiful forest trails.
- Explore the North Woods and visit the Headwaters of the Mississippi at Itasca State Park.
- Practice tàijíquán (Tai Chi), celebrate duānwǔjié (Dragon Boat Festival), and explore arts like shūfǎ (calligraphy) and làrǎn (batik) as you build your language skills.

All activities are guided by supportive staff as you hear and use Chinese all day.

For more information, please contact Dr. Gay Rawson at rawson@cord.edu.

