An aerial photograph of a college campus. On the left, a tall, tan-colored bell tower with a cross on top stands out. The campus is filled with lush green trees. To the right, there are modern academic buildings with large glass windows. The sun is shining brightly in the upper right corner, creating a warm, golden glow over the scene. The sky is a clear, vibrant blue.

“With a goal of being a doctor one day, I joined the Athletics Leadership Academy to learn to be a better listener, teacher, healer, and an overall better leader now and in the future.”

“The further I go into my majors, the smaller the classes and the easier it is to form connections with professors and peers. Another benefit of the Offutt School of Business is the Hollstadt Women in Leadership Program. Through this program, I was given the opportunity to network and make many connections, including a career mentor.”

“Once I sat down with the music and pre-med faculty, I knew Concordia was the right choice. They were able to provide individualized attention to my goals through academic, personal, and work opportunities that other schools could not provide to first- and second-year students.”

– Jacob Meyer '24
