Concordia is a place with deep roots. The college has been providing a quality education for more than 130 years. When you are here, you are invited to be a part of something BIGGER.

► HOMECOMING BONFIRE + FIREWORKS

Students kick off Homecoming weekend with an annual bonfire built like no other (aka HUGE). The night ends with a fireworks display over Jake Christiansen Stadium.

TRADITIONS THAT EXCITE AND INSPIRE

With hundreds of activities and events outside the classroom, it's hard to pick a favorite, but here are a few highlights.

MULTICULTURAL CELEBRATION

COBBER RING

We aren't kidding when we say these rings are everywhere. The Cobber ring is the second most recognized ring in the country. It connects Cobbers young and old in all areas of the globe when they spot one.

CHRISTMAS CONCERTS

The Concordia Christmas concerts are a 97-year-old tradition and nationally renowned event. Concerts are held on campus and at Orchestra Hall in Minneapolis.
