We learn the art
of immortalizing: yes,
let's gather long
with ~~xx~~ our lenses and our eyes hungry
for what may catch them

I want to know the ways of light, want
to know the ways of frame, of how to capture not just the body but
the spirit, too

Oh, look
at these strangers, these pigeons and artists
swarmed centered in park,
rain misted and ready
to be seen.
