

RESPONSIBLY ENGAGING WITH AI

TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN THE WORLD

2025 Faith, Reason, and World Affairs Symposium

SEPT. 17 | SCHEDULE

All sessions are free and open to the public.
All sessions are in Memorial Auditorium unless otherwise noted.

8:45-10:15 a.m. Plenary I

Dr. Katherine Elkins | Creator, Kenyon University Human-centered AI curriculum and co-founder of Kenyon AI Lab

The session focuses on the intersection of the humanities and technology, motivating students to critically evaluate how AI systems impact them.

10:15-10:30 a.m. Refreshment Break

10:30-11:30 a.m. Concurrent Sessions | How AI Affects Us | Various Locations

11:30 a.m.-1 p.m. AI Experiences | Hands-on AI | Various Locations

1:15-2:30 p.m. Plenary II

Dr. Elizabeth M. Adams | CEO of EMA Advisory Services

Adams collaborates with leaders and organizations to align their goals with responsible AI practices. This session focuses on our responsibility as users and shapers of AI tools.

2:45-3:45 p.m. Concurrent Sessions | Our Responsibilities Regarding AI
Various Locations

4-4:30 p.m. Closing Session | The Charge to Concordia to Lead the Way

For additional information including speaker bios, complete schedule, concurrent session descriptions, and symposium history, please visit:

ConcordiaCollege.edu/Symposium

CONCORDIA COLLEGE
MOORHEAD, MINNESOTA