COBBER FEATURES

Emma Doty '27 | SIDNEY, MONTANA

A big adjustment I've had to overcome during my first semester was being so far from home. I had never been away from my friends and family for so long, and it was definitely a challenge at times. However, the distance has proven to be a blessing. It encouraged me to meet new people and experience everything Fargo-Moorhead has to offer.

Austin Ratliff '23 | HAVRE, MONTANA

At Concordia, I liked the feeling of home and belongingness. I always felt like I could talk with people or ask questions and not feel out of the ordinary for doing so. Concordia does a good job at this sense of inclusiveness.
