CONCORDIA THEATRE

Concordia Theatre typically produces four mainstage productions per season, in addition to student-directed works. Student actors, directors, designers, and technicians have significant opportunities to participate. More than 100 students from across campus come together each season to bring our shows to life. On stage or backstage, theatre major or not, there is a place for you!

INDUSTRY-FOCUSED STUDENT WORK

Earn while you learn! Hands-on production work is at the heart of our department. Paid positions in front of house, graphic design, scenery, lighting, and costumes closely mirror early career experiences and position you to enter the theatre profession.

JOBS AND GRADUATE SCHOOL PLACEMENT

Join our graduates who have benefited from faculty mentoring and specialized coaching to achieve graduate school admission or careers on stage or behind the scenes. Whether your dream is a life in the arts or a life influenced by the arts, we're here to help you discover your potential and turn your passion into purpose.

OUR FACILITIES

Concordia Theatre is housed in the Frances Frazier Comstock Theatre at the very heart of campus and is home to our 400-seat proscenium theatre and 100-seat flexible theatre, with faculty offices, shops, and classrooms all under the same roof.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Whether you're a performer or work in production, Concordia College recognizes how your artistic talent contributes to the cultural, intellectual, and spiritual life of the college.

BROADWAY GUEST ARTISTS

In addition to our award-winning resident faculty and staff, Concordia Theatre is dedicated to bringing the world of theatre into your classroom and stage.
