

Dear Shar and MacDalton,

Congratulations again on your recent graduation! We are so proud of everything you accomplished during your years at Concordia, and we are cheering you on as you head into this next stage of life.

As I near the end of my first year as president, I am thrilled that Concordia has gained such incredible momentum — and you were a big part of that! Throughout this past year, you could just feel it (and hear it) at our concerts and sporting events, in our classrooms and labs, and in the everyday familiar, friendly places, like dining services, the library, and wherever else students, staff, and faculty spend time together. It's so much fun to be here and to have experienced this energy and excitement with you.

And I am confident the enthusiasm is going to keep growing! This week we will be sharing more about the exciting momentum we're building across the college. Be sure to follow along on social media as we celebrate the past year and share more about what's brewing for the years to come.

We would love for you to stay connected — because, once you're a Cobber, you're always a Cobber!
