COUNSELORS

Teach language and culture through interactive lessons and activities. Supervise campers and build cabin communities. (Junior counselor roles are available for ages 16-17.)

TEACHERS

Plan, teach, and assess language classes for high school credit students under the direction of the credit facilitator. Maintain grade records, complete progress reports, and communicate student progress.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

- Immerse youth in the target language through lessons, games, and activities.
- Supervise and engage with campers ("villagers") during meals, activities, and cabin life.
- Assist with village upkeep to ensure a safe, clean environment.

BENEFITS

- Free housing and meals during the summer.
- Paid training and on-the-job learning.
- Tuition discounts for your child.
- J-1 visa sponsorship for international applicants.

QUALIFICATIONS

Counselors: 18+ years old (16-17 for junior counselors). Two years of language study or equivalent fluency.

Teachers: Bachelor's degree or international equivalent. Experience teaching the target language to adolescents (ages 14-18).
