We had the privilege of welcoming 48 international students to campus this fall, our largest international starting class to date! These remarkable students hail from 36 countries and represent 13 United World Colleges. Prior to classes commencing, we hosted a week of orientation activities, which included a picnic and shopping trip to ensure our students had the essentials for a comfortable year.

MEET EMILY

Our team is thrilled to welcome Emily Johnson. Emily is a proud Concordia alumna and master’s graduate from the University of Bristol in the U.K. As a Cobber, intercultural communication taught by the late Dr. Tkachuk and literature courses taught by Dr. Steinwand were favorites, and she’s quick to talk about her rewarding semester abroad in Lillehammer, Norway. Emily is thrilled to see the growth of both campus and the larger community since returning to Fargo-Moorhead and is honored to support new students considering Concordia.

Concordia College is on the Minnesota side of a thriving community comprising Moorhead, Minnesota, and Fargo, North Dakota, in the Upper Midwest. With a metropolitan-area population of more than 230,000, the F-M area is one of the fastest-growing regions in the country and home to 30,000 college students. Separated by the Red River, the two cities offer the convenience of small-town living with many big-city advantages. Rich farmland, beautiful lakes country, and pine forests are also minutes away.

Fargo-Moorhead is 379 kilometers northwest of Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, on Interstate 94.
