INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK
November 14-20, 2020
Concordia College celebrated International Education Week, an annual national week of the U.S. Department of State and U.S. Department of Education that honors the benefits of international education and exchange worldwide.

With virtual events occurring throughout the week, the celebration is intended to educate future global citizens and leaders. The week’s activities began with the International Student Organization Festival, which included a parade of flags representing the home countries of Concordia’s international students, and concluded with a presentation from US Diplomat in Mexico, Kempton Cox, J.D. Mini language learning sessions and a student photo exhibition were also held throughout the week.

Concordia College is on the Minnesota side of a thriving community comprising Moorhead, Minnesota, and Fargo, North Dakota, in the Upper Midwest. With a metropolitan-area population of more than 230,000, the F-M area is one of the fastest-growing regions in the country and home to 30,000 college students. Separated by the Red River, the two cities offer the convenience of small-town living with many big-city advantages. Rich farmland, beautiful lakes country, and pine forests are also minutes away. Fargo-Moorhead is 379 kilometers northwest of Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minnesota, on Interstate 94.
